CHICAGO, THURSDAY, JUNE 27, 1901.

W. J. DEBOE'S AUBURN STAKES.

Despite the fact that yesterday was an off day at Washington Park, the usual large attendance was on hand and witnessed a good day's sport.

The feature event of the day, the Auburn Stakes, went to James Arthur's likely colt, W. J. Deboe, who carried his light impost in front all the way, and, stalling off Merito's determined rush at the end, won a somewhat clever race by a neck. Cambrian came fast in the last sixteenth and nipped the tiring Orimar for third place. Silurian, on whom there was a generous play, ran a dull race, going all to pieces in the last quarter.

The tilt between Terminus and Eddie Jones in the first race was an exciting one, the two locking at the head of the stretch and fighting it out to the wire. Terminus, although slightly swerving in the last eighth, always had a neck's advantage and held it to the end. Lady Elite who is not partial to anything over three-quarters ran a good race and is due for an early bracket when placed right.

Jimenez, with Bullman in the saddle, easily disposed of Operator in the fifth race, a dash of one mile. The Kelley colt had all his old time speed and running well within himself under a clever ride, won by two lengths, while the Durham colt beat Frank Ackerman four lengths for the place. Operator was cut off sharply just beyond the club house turn, but made up his ground gradually and was always within striking distance. Many horsemen were of the opinion that Mathews made a mistake in trying to place the colt instead of allowing him to run on his own courage, as Operator is a free runner and shows to best advantage as a pacemaker.

Possart, long over due, finally won a cleverly contested six furlongs dash, which was the last event on the card. Bullman held him nicely together and, keeping him in the lead by a slight margin throughout, had enough left in the colt to win by a length from Rollick, who beat the fast closing Isaline a short half length for the place. Toah, of whom much was expected on the strength of his California performances, ran a poor race and was never a factor.

NOTES OF THE TURF

What will be J. R. and F. P. Keene's 1902 younger division, was shipped from Lexington Monday. Thirty-two yearlings go to Red Bank, N. J., to begin training. Among the notable bred youngsters is a half brother to Cap and Belle, a brother to Outlander, a half brother to Virginia Earl, and half brother to Pertruchio and a half sister to Conroy.

S. C. Miller, Toronto, Ont. Such a bet should be paid, unless you have reason to think the person making it had knowledge, which you did not possess, concerning the change in the order of the running of the races.

F. C., Chicago. Your word should be good as to what you personally saw. It is quite within the bounds of possibility that one or more books might have shown 50 to 1 for a brief period of time.

S. C. Miller, Toronto. We only secure "show" quotations on unplaced horses that are 4 to 1 or less at post time. At the odds Redpath should have been even money to show.

T. B. Ambuchon, St. Louis, Mo. Chappaqua's best record at a mile is 1:40, made at Harlem October 13, 1900, carrying 110 pounds.

It is announced that racing at Newport is to be continued all summer and well into the autumn.

J. B. Haggins' good stallion St. Andrew died at Rancho del Paso last week.

OAKWOOD HANDICAP WEIGHTS.

The first of the four big handicap stakes to be decided during the progress of the Washington Park meeting, The Oakwood, distance 1 1-8 miles, will be run next Saturday. Secretary Howard announced the weights yesterday. As will be seen below the weights range from 126 pounds on Sam Hildreth's crack Waring down to 87 pounds on the fillies Helen Dare and Annilla. Many famous horses are in this list and a big acceptance and a tremendous race may be safely predicted. The weights are as follows:

ENGLISH TURF TALK.

Although Foxhall P. Keene's Olympian failed to win the Derby or show prominently in the Grand Prix of Paris, according to the opinions of the English turf writers received by the latest mail, the Domino colt is considered in the front rank of racers on the other side. The Field in commenting on the Derby has the following in its issue of June 8:

"If we had to choose one as most likely to reverse the form at a future date it would be the American colt Olympian, who certainly looks as if he can be made much better. The colt in question is a bigish chestnut by Domino, with great substance and nice quality. He made all the running for quite a mile and a quarter, when he gave way to the winner, after which he finished fifth, quite close up with Veronese and Floriform."

The remarkable success of horses descended from Galopin in the Derby and other classic races this season is referred to in the following paragraph.

"The most wonderful thing about the Derby was the signal triumph of the Galopin family. Volodyovski is by Florizel II., a son of St. Simon, and a grandson of Galopin. William III. is by St. Simon, and Veronese by Donovan, who was also a son of Galopin. Floriform, like the winner, is by Florizel II., and thus the first four were all by grandsons or great-grandsons of the famous 1875 Derby winner. The American Olympian finished fifth, but sixth and seventh places went to Osboch and Doricles, the first named by Oberon, a son of Galopin, while Doricles is also a son of Florizel II."

Winner—B. c. by Ben Strome—Mary Letcher. Went to post at 2:30. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Howell outran his field throughout and was evidently much the best. Playlike ran well and is consistent. Fonsoluca and Far Cry finished strongly. G. Whittier had but little chance with his jockey. Man o'War was prominent a furlong out.

Scratched—26239 Dark Secret, 106. Overweights—Far Cry, 1 pound. Howell W., show, 6 to 1. Playlike, show, 2 to 5. Fonsoluca, show, evens.

*Disqualified for foul. Time, 24, 48, 1:00½, 1:13½, 1:27, 1:39½.

Winner—B. c. by Deceiver—Lizzie Montrose. Went to post at 3:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. The Puritan was lucky, perfectly handled and was probably best although Ethics suffered costly interference on the stretch turn and closed with a great rush. St. Finnan crossed Ethics in the stretch but himself lost ground, being carried wide on the turn and showed remarkably improved form. Round Up closed a big gap, ran around the field on the turns and finished on the outside with a fine burst of speed. Bedeck had no mischances and ran poorly. Glennellie raced well for seven furlongs and tired after a good brush with the winner. The Rhymer lacked speed and is probably being trained for a long race. Watch him.

Scratched—22190 Lone Fisherman, 96; 25956 Lady Chorister, 91.

Overweights—Bedeck, 4 pounds. The Puritan, show, 2 to 5. Ethics, show, 7 to 5. Round Up, show, 10 to 1. The Rhymer, show, 1 to 2.

*Added starters. Time, 1:14.

Winner—B. c. by Meddler—Castalia. Went to post at 3:30. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Chilton ran a fine race, was best at the weights, is evidently game and a stayer and will improve. Gay Boy put up a fine, game race and it was a close thing between these two. White Owl was bearing out on the turn and tired under the weight. Blue Blood was a contender for a half and then quit and was probably short.

Scratched—26124 April Shower, 117; 26174 Cassville, 112.

No show betting.

26294 FOURTH RACE—7-8 Mile. $800 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Handicap.

Time, 12½, 24, 48, 1:00½, 1:13, 1:26.

Winner—Ch. c. by Pessara—Bradwick. Went to post at 4:05. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won cleverly; second easily. Cyrano outclassed the field. He is a difficult horse to ride and inclined to loaf, hence the close finish. He waited on Lady Uncas to the last eighth before making a move, and Mitchell's over confidence nearly cost him the race. Lady Uncas, under a fine ride, showed to be speedy and game and is in very good form. Maltster was badly shut off in the stretch and finished strongly. Himself was going very easy to the stretch and appeared to be a contender, but failed in the last furlong unaccountably. Hammock is not in good form. Tatar showed speed and is worth remembering.

Scratched—26236 Maximo Gomez, 120; 25715 Janice, 113; 25579 Colonel Padden, 105; 262083 May W., 103; 26271 Belle of Troy, 102.

Overweights—Maltster, 4 pounds.

ENGLISH TURF TALK.

Another American was eighth, but the first six English horses in the race were all of Galopin blood in tail male, and such a state of affairs, following on the races for the Two and One Thousand and the Newmarket Stakes, is most remarkable, seeing that the first three in the Two Thousand, the first five in the One Thousand and the first four in the Newmarket Stakes were also all in direct line from the famous Blankney sire.

The defeat of the American horse King's Courier in the race for the Epsom Cup on June 6 was the means of securing a compliment for the work of American trainers. King's Courier was trained by Enoch Wishard last year and met with signal success. The Field comments as follows on the change in the form of this grand horse:

"He had not won since he won the Select Stakes, when he was trained by Wishard, but on the Doncaster form he seemed likely to beat Merry Gal, and if the record was a correct guide he should have been favorite, as David Garrick had only beaten an average handicap field. However, odds were laid on the Chester Cup winner, and Merry Gal was preferred to King's Courier, who certainly stripped big, but did not look so very much amiss. He ran, however, as if he had hardly been trained at all, being well beaten as soon as Tattenham Corner was passed, although the pace had been slow in the early part of the race. He then dropped right behind and finished dead slow and with his mouth open, blowing like a grampus. This is not the horse's proper form, and we are afraid that there is not sufficient time in which to get him fit before the Ascot Cup. At the same time it is curious that American horses seldom seem to win races after they leave the hands of an American trainer for those of an English one, and at present it would appear as if Wishard had got the best out of the horse before he sold him. Let us hope that the reverse will be found to be the case."

M. Henry who won the Oaks for Mr. Keene on Cap and Bells, only began riding in England the first day of the Epsom meet and scored his notable victory the fourth time that he was in the saddle. He narrowly escaped riding a winner on his first appearance, as on the opening day his name was put up on the board as the jockey of Escorial for the Ashted Selling Plate. Henry's name was taken down before the start and Danny Maher piloted Escorial to victory.

He lost several lengths at the last hurdle, but recovered his ground in a remarkable manner. Matt Simpson tired and was given a bad looking ride. He went past the winner at the last hurdle only a sixteenth from the finish, yet was allowed to be beaten out. He was easily best. Cephalalgia, perfectly handled, found the journey too long. Semper Ira and King Barleycorn performed poorly.

Winner—B. g. by Sir Dixon—Amy Davenport.
Went to post at 5:05. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Nones was easily best, was shut out on the first turn, but made up ground quickly and appeared like a certain winner throughout. Bombshell showed to good advantage, due to improved riding tactics on McQuade's part, contrasting strongly with his previous efforts. Tyr Shena, Alsike and Andronicus were driving in close order in the last furlong and Odum outdistanced the others. Andronicus' race should not be taken seriously, however.
Nones, show, 1 to 3. Bombshell, show, 8 to 5. Tyr Shena, show, 6 to 5. Andronicus, show, 1 to 4.

Winner—Br. c, by Blazes—Miss Bishop.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won in hard drive; second easily. Terminus made his run from the half-mile pole, and catching Eddie Jones at stretch entry the two fought it out the last quarter. Terminus having a neck's advantage from the last sixteenth. He swerved slightly toward the inside rail at the last sixteenth, but did not interfere with Eddie Jones enough to make a difference in the result. Eddie Jones ran a good, game race and fought every foot of the ground in the last quarter. Lady Elite, all things considered, ran a good race. She was right there for three-quarters, which is the distance best suited to her sprinting propensities. Andrisa was short and went to pieces after running three-quarters well. She will bear watching.

Overweights—Andrisa, 2 pounds.
Terminus, show, out. Eddie Jones, show, out. Lady Elite, 6 to 5.

Winner—Br. c, by Azra—Mishap.
Went to post at 3:05. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won handily; next two driving. Jaubert's win was a lucky one owing to J. Winkfield's bungling work on Pentecost. He got the colt bumped into just before the stretch entry and then rode him in and out down the last quarter. Despite this messing about Pentecost finished stoutly and was undoubtedly the best. The Rival, right there nearly all the way, was tiring somewhat at the end. Belle's Commoner made up ground in the last quarter and finished strongly. Ogle was badly cut off by Pentecost at the first quarter, recovered and was close up to the last sixteenth, where he went all to pieces. Hans Wagner was always outrun and can do a great deal better.

Scratched—26198 Magi, 115.
Jaubert, show, 8 to 5. Pentecost, show, out. The Rival, show, evens.

Winner—B. c, by Kismet—Solitaire.
Went to post at 3:45. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second handily. W. J. Deboe always in the lead, lucky and nicely ridden, stalled off Merito's determined rush at the end and outgamed the Durham filly in the closing strides. Merito was rated along nicely, was well ridden, made her run at the right time, but was not quite good enough to beat the winner. Cambrian finished resolutely and nipped Orimar right on the post. The latter had all his speed but was stopping at the end. He was probably a trifle short. Hard Knot lay in a good position at the stretch turn, but tired palpably in the last eighth. Wild Pirate ran a listless race and can do better. Silurian appears to have gone all to pieces and retired shortly after running well for three quarters.

Scratched—26034 Van Hoorebeke, 100; 26155 Thrive, 105; (26229) Gonfalon, 113; 261973 Anthracite, 102.

Went to post at 4:15. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; next three driving. Denman Thompson ran a fine race, and from next to last position got to his horses one by one, and was going away at the end. Gormley rode a miserable race on Lady Idris, allowing her to swerve from the center of the track to the inside rail at the last eighth after swinging wide at the stretch turn. Burnie Bunton was carried wide at the head of the stretch by Lady Idris and lost ground, but was tiring at the end. Evelyn Byrd closed stoutly. She runs best in the soft going and is ready to win. Alaska made up a lot of ground and ran a striking race. If You Dare went all to pieces at the last eighth. Emma R. died away to nothing after showing well for a half.

Overweights—If You Dare, 1 pound; Burnie Bunton, 1.

Went to post at 4:50. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Jiminez had a world of speed and ran easily in front all the way. Operator was cut off badly after passing beyond the club house, losing several lengths, but at that it is hardly probable he would have beaten the winner. He made an attempt to close at the last eighth, but Jiminez was too much for him and he had to be content with the place. Fred Ackerman ran a fair race, easily beating the others. Gaheris ran well for a half mile and then retired. He acted like a crazy horse at the post.

Went to post at 5:15. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won rather handily; next two driving.

Possart had his speed and carried it nicely for the distance. Rollick looked dangerous at the last eighth but hung in the closing strides. Isaline, badly entangled for the first half, finished strongly when she got clear sailing. Emma C. L. ran at an even clip throughout. St. Wood swung away to the outside at the stretch turn, losing ground but closed stoutly. He is ready to win. Toah could not keep up at any part of the race. He should do better the next time. Alee had quite a turn of speed for a half mile and then retired.

Winner—B. g. by St. Saviour—Miss Hera.
Went to post at 4:26. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won handily; second all out. St. Hera was off well in motion, was hustled along all the way and under a mild drive all through the last furlong. Ben Howard was the best and with clear sailing would have won. He was interfered with a couple of times and in a pocket to the stretch turn. Newton W. was coming strongly and Lynden Tree had a rough journey and was bumped into and carried wide at the stretch turn. St. Hera, show, 4 to 5. Ben Howard, show, out. Newton W., show, 1 to 2. Illoaho show, 1 to 2. Lynden Tree, show, 7 to 10. Lemuel, show, 3 to 2.

Winner—B. c. by Judge Murray—Mittie B.
Went to post at 4:50. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. J. H. Sloan came with his usual rush in the last furlong, after coming wide at the stretch turn and catching Woodtrice tiring, got up in the last couple of strides. The latter appeared like an easy winner at the sixteenth post, but collapsed when J. H. Sloan collared him and Aker put up a weak finish. Beau was tiring at the end. Jeannot was lame when going to the post.
Scratched—261923 Montana Gent, 103; (26278) Tip Gallant, 95; 25764 Saragamp, 82.
Overweights—Beau, 1 pound.

Winner—B. m. by Fiddlesticks—Lack a Daisy.
Went to post at 5:21. At post 22 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Loiter was prominent in all breakaways and wore herself out considerably while at the post. She showed the most speed however and just managed to last long enough. She finished gamer to day than ever before and was certainly the best of this field. Edinborough was driving hard all through the last quarter. Madam Gerst finished strongly. Frances Reis quit at the end.
